COAL STRIKE HINGES ON ACTION OF MINE WORKERS AND OWNERS

Both Sides Considering Governor Pinchot's Proposals
Which Are Said to Be Favorable to Mine Unions
—Operators' Action Uncertain.

Harrisburg, Pa., August 30.—Hope for settlement of the anthracite coal strike, now scheduled for September 1, was dim today.

Predictions that the program of settlement outlined by Governor Gifford Pinchot, late yesterday would be rejected were voiced by those closest to both operators and miners.

The operators, it was learned from authoritative sources today, take the following stand on the governor's proposals:

THE WAGE QUESTION.—A ten per cent increase is beyond reason. Such an increase suggested by the governor will only tend to add to the unrest in the coal fields if not granted, a wage increase cannot be paid without a boost in prices to the coal-burning public.

THE SEMI-CHECK-OFF.—The operators have no objection to the governor's plan other than his statement that "full recognition should be given the union." A leading operator was authority for the statement his morning that "full recognition" would not be granted.

THE EIGHT HOUR DAY.—The operators agree to this, with the minor exception of saying barn men, mule-handlers and some of the maintenance laborers prefer the 12 hour day and should be allowed to retain it.

Today the miners, with their full scale committee of forty members met at the Penn-Harris hotel here, discussing the four proposals made by Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, serving to avert the scheduled anthracite coal strike.

The operators in turn, had gone to Philadelphia, where they were to meet today and pass upon the proposals submitted.

That the proposals favored the miners was the opinion at the State House here today, where Governor Pinchot awaited the joint meeting of

CUBAN REGIME IS THREATENED BY OVERT MOVE

Action of Veterans Assuming a Serious
Aspect

Washington, Aug. 30.—The state department is without advices that a censorship had been established on Cuban-American cable lines, as reported in dispatches from Havana.

Unofficial reports that this and other precautionary measures are being taken by the Zayas government to head of a seditious movement were not credited either by officials of the department or by Cuban legation attaches.

The American embassy at Havana cabled to the state department a translation of an article published in Havana quoting Mr. Crowder to the effect that the United States will support the existing Cuban government in event of revolution. The Crowder statement, the Havana article said, was made following a lengthy conference between Undersecretary of State Phillips, Dr. Arturo Padro, the Cuban charge d'affaires, and Crowder himself.

A written assurance that no such implied threat of intervention had been made by Ambassador Crowder was handed to Dr. Padro by Undersecretary Phillips when the Cuban diplomat called at the state department.

The movement of disaffected veterans, which apparently has assumed an aspect threatening the stability of the present Cuban government, is headed by General Carlos Garcia Veloz, Cuban minister to Great Britain and son of the General Garcia of revolutionary fame, who is in Cuba at present.

These veterans, according to the official best posted on Cuban affairs in Washington, are demanding three things from President Zayas: First, the total abolition of the lottery; second, the defeat of the Tarafa bill, and third, provisions for veterans' pensions and the care of orphans to be made in the Cuban budget.

General Garcia Veloz and his supporters insist upon the doing away with the lottery, alleging that the Cuban people pay in approximately $9,500,000 each year for lottery tickets, of which the government receives but $4,500,000.

PRINCESS ANASTASIA DEAD

London, Aug. 30.—Following an illness of several weeks, the seriousness of which only became known to the public in the last two or three days, Princess Anastasia, wife of Prince Christopher of Greece and formerly Mrs. William B. Leads, widow of the American tin plate king, died peacefully at 12 minutes before midnight last night.

CHARGES BROUGHT SEEKING REMOVAL OF JOHN McNAMARA

Columbus, August 30.—Accusation against McNamara, Columbus, as assistant state welfare director, was guilty of misconduct and extreme cruelty is included among the 17 specific complaints transmitted today by Attorney General Crabb to Governor Donahue. The attorney general asked the governor to conduct an early hearing relative to the complaints which were filed with Attorney General Crabb by various persons.

If the charges are proven the attorney general recommended that McNamara be dismissed.

Many of the charges against McNamara are supported by affidavits said Attorney General Crabb. "If any of them are true, Mr. McNamara is wholly unfit to fill the important position he now holds."

"I deny absolutely every charge made by the attorney general and I certainly shall request Governor Donahue to conduct a full and impartial hearing just as soon as the health of Mrs. McNamara will permit her to attend in person and answer to the charges," said Assistant Director McNamara today.

PRINCESS SUCCUMBS WHILE SHERIFF WAITS TO SEIZE TREASURES

New York, Aug. 30.—Princess Lwoff-Parlaghy, painter of portraits of kings, died without knowing that a deputy sheriff stood guard outside her door, ready to seize her priceless art collection to appease the demand of her creditors. Diabetes had been eating at her delicate body for months. Princess Parlaghy had been in a state of coma for several days. When she regained consciousness she called her nurse and asked her to bring her jewel casket and place around her neck the crown brooch of diamonds and rubies given her by Count Bismarck. With the Iron Chancellor's gift clutched in her thin fingers, and in a house filled with the portraits of great men and art treasures and gifts from all parts of the world, the princess died. Born in Hungary, she was a protege of the ex-Emperor, and painted Wilhelm and many of the crowned heads of Europe and famous Americans, including President Roosevelt.

The conference at which the proposal was presented was open, and was attended by 24 members of the scale committees of the three anthracite districts, scores of statisticians, the followers of both the miners and operators and newspaper men.

During the reading of the proposals by Governor Pinchot, the expression on the faces of the leaders of both sides failed to reveal any indication of how they were receiving the report which has taken three days of conferences and investigation to make. The general impression of disinterested parties was that the proposal strongly favored the miners. "When production is assured," Governor Pinchot said, "I intend to recommend constructive plans that will, I am confident, prevent any part of this increase of fifty cents a ton going to the consumer. I believe the proposed settlement to be fair to all three parties of this controversy. It is fair to the miners, for it will notably improve their condition as to wages, hours and recognition of the union. It is fair to the operators, for it leaves them in position to continue running their mines, and to do so at a reasonable profit. It is fair to the public, for the public can better afford to get anthracite at a slight increase in price, if that can not be avoided, than not to get anthracite at all. In particular, it leaves both miners and operators far better off than either would be if the contention of the other had been accepted."

Governor Pinchot referred to the profits of the coal operators during the past year. "In the last three months of 1922 and the first three months of 1923, their profits have been greater than ever before in their history," he declared. "But the extent to which these producing conditions will continue no one can now predict with confidence."

Suggesting that the anthracite commission board be authorized by the joint wage scales committee to undertake a complete revision of the wage rates within the year of the suggested new agreement, Governor Pinchot said: "The whole body of wage rates in the anthracite field is antiquated, haphazard and honey-combed with inequality."

At the close of the governor's address President Lewis said the miners would be glad to meet at the appointed time on Friday. Chairman S. D. Warriner, for the operators, said they would give the proposal careful consideration and attend the Friday conference.

Three attorneys of Flint, Mich., were killed and two others seriously injured when their motor car crashed into an interurban car near Mt. Morris, Mich. The dead: Judge Marshall M. Frisbie, 42; Clark M. Johnson, 40, and Clay M. Wilber, 37.

Dr. F. G. Banting, discoverer of the insulin treatment for diabetes, has been insured at Toronto for $1,000,000.

HARPER'S REQUEST DENIED

Columbus, Aug. 30.—The board of control has declined to grant the request of John E. Harper, welfare director, for an appropriation to be used in the purchase of additional live stock for institutional farms. The amount being needed for the purchase of cows for the Grafton farm, it was stated. Practically the entire herd at that place was obliterated when tubercular cows were found in the flock.

INFANT STRANGLED IN CRIB

Carey, O., Aug. 30.—A pacifier had amused Marlin Creston, 11 months old twin son of Virgil Bell, for many months proved fatal to the child. Placed in his crib beside his twin brother, Marlin attempted to crawl from his crib. In doing so, the string of the pacifier became hooked on the top of the crib. The child fell back into the bed, tightening the string of the pacifier about his neck, strangling him.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF WIFE

Sandusky, O., Aug. 30.—James Brady, 34, butcher, killed his wife, Margaret, 30, at their home here, according to police. Brady, according to Chief of Police Jay Perry, beat Mrs. Brady into unconsciousness with a hammer and then cut her throat with a razor. Mrs. Brady had sued Brady for divorce.

DOLLINGS DIRECTORS SUED

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Receivers for the R. L. Dollings company filed suit in common please court against the board of directors of the Dollings company, to recover for creditors and stockholders of the company $490,000, which they alleged was paid illegally as dividends on common stock from October, 1919, to April, 1923.

ITALIAN FLEET READY FOR IMMEDIATE MOVE AGAINST THE GREEKS

Ultimatum Follows Killing of Italian Head of Allied Commission—League of Nations May Be Involved to Avert Clash.

With formal peace in the Near East only a few weeks old and the nations of Europe still turbulent and restive from the great war, the grim shadow of a new conflict appeared upon the horizon today.

Italy sent an ultimatum to Greece demanding reparations and an apology for the killing of General Tellini, the Italian head of the allied commission for the delimitation of the Aleanian frontier and four of Tellini's colleagues.

As soon as the ultimatum was sent, reports of naval and troop movements began to pour out of Italy and Premier Mussolini was said to be making war plans with military and naval officials.

Advices from London said that the allied statesmen were opposed to another war and that the League of Nations might be invoked to maintain the peace.

London, August 30.—The Italian fleet at Taranto has been ordered to clear for action and a movement against Greece may take place at any moment, said a Milan dispatch to the Evening News.

Paris, August 30.—Secret orders have been issued concentrating the Italian fleet at Taranto for a possible demonstration against Greece, said a dispatch from Turin today. Troop concentrations are reported from the interior of Italy.

The Italian government is awaiting Greece's reply to the 24-hour ultimatum demanding and apology and reparations for the killing of General Tellini, head of the allied commission for delimitation of the Aleanian frontier, and the four other members of his party near Janina.

Public feeling has risen to fever heat.

Italian press censorship forbids the publication of movements of troops and warships.

It is understood that Italy is preparing to send a division of soldiers to Pheas whether or not Greece apologizes.

Premier Mussolini conferred with military officials at great length. The Italians are certain that the attack was directed against Italy and not against the boundary commission as body.

Athens, August 30.—At a meeting of the Greek ministers today, it was decided to agree to only part of the demands made by Premier Mussolini.

SMALL BOY FOUND SLAIN NEAR HOME

Kingston, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Howard Rothenburg, 7, son of Charles Rothenburg, Newark (N. J.) hat manufacturer, was found brutally murdered in a clump of bushes near Windham, Green county. The boy, who was living with his mother and sister at Windham, left his home to go fishing. Four hours later a farmer found his hat on the road and in looking for the owner discovered the child's body in the bushes. His hands were tied behind his back with a piece of string and his mouth was bound with a handkerchief. The farmer carried the body to Windham, where Coroner William Mulberry said death was caused by suffocation. Local and state police are scouring the woods near where the body was found in an effort to uncover a clue that might lead to the apprehension of the murderer.

SALVAGE MILLIONS OF GOLD BULLION

London, Aug. 30.—Commander Guy Damant, directing the treasure hunt for the gold which was aboard the Laurentic when that ship was torpedoed off the Donegal coast in 1917, has practically salvaged the whole of the millions of gold and silver bullion which was lost. Commander Damant gives credit for the success of the treasure hunt to Professor Brooks, who, with his electrical spear, or magic divining rod, not only located the treasure, but went down and stayed more than an hour in the depths of the ocean to encourage the divers in their quest.

MR. ADAMS TO SERVE OUT TERM WITH CHIEF'S SUPPORT

Washington, Aug. 30.—John T. Adams will serve out his term as chairman of the Republican national committee with the full support of President Coolidge.

This information came from authoritative quarters within the national committee, which have had direct contact with the president. It also confirmed reports that a well defined fight to oust Chairman Adams had developed.

President Coolidge found this movement actively under way when he took office. One of the first things he did, according to party leaders who have conferred with him, was to put his foot down firmly on it, with the result that now the opposition has about died out.

The effort to get rid of Adams was initiated by world court advocates, who desired his removal because of his stand against the court proposal. Chairman Adams said he regarded any other position as coming close to breaking faith with the people, who gave the Republican ticket a majority of 7,000,000 in 1920 on the league issue.

Before Mr. Coolidge assumed the presidency and titular leadership of the party, the fight on Adams had reached the point where his opponents were ready to make an open move to supplant him at the December meeting of the national committee. They had their man picked out.

President Coolidge informed those heading the movement that he would not permit the fight to go on. In line with his policy of retaining the Harding aides in the administration, he also purposed to keep the party machinery intact.

It is pretty well established, too, that Mr. Adams' friends on the committee were prepared for the fray.

The element opposed to foreign entanglements is in control of the committee, and it would have taken unusual executive pressure to shake these members from their support of the chairman.

Chairman Adams' term runs until the next national convention elects a new national committee. This will be next summer. Whether he will stand for re-election or can get another term if he wants it depends entirely upon the personnel of the new committee.

Mr. Adams is concluding his vacation in Michigan this week. Monday he will go to New York to confer with Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the national committee, on his return from Europe. From New York Chairman Adams will come to Washington to get things in shape for actively launching the pre-convention campaign about Oct. 1.

BUESCHER ACCEPTS

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Failure of friends of Captain R. H. Hastings to have him either restored to good standing by the state civil service commission or granted a rehearing resulted in the appointment of A. M. Buescher of Columbus, world war veteran, as superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School, Lancaster. Major Buescher refused to accept the position as long as there was a chance for Captain Hastings, under whom he served as assistant superintendent for many years.

DE VALERA WINNER IN IRISH ELECTION

Dublin, Aug. 30.—A startling change in the complexion of returns from Monday's polling has put an entirely different face on the result of the election. The Irish election which, judged by first returns, indicated a big sweep for the Free State government, seems to have entirely changed. While the Free Staters will lead all other parties, they may have to rely upon successful business, farmer and independent candidates for a working majority. The government fared badly in County Clare, where De Valera headed the poll with a big majority which carried in two other Republicans on the ticket.

SAYS OPEN BREAK WOULD PROVE COSTLY

Washington, Aug. 30.—Ambassador Harvey has told President Coolidge he does not expect an open break between Great Britain and France over the French Ruhr policy. "They are both in the same box, and while neither is getting much sleep, he can't afford to move," the ambassador is quoted as saying. A break would be disastrous to both countries, is the way the ambassador is said to view the situation. It would mean the loss of all the fruits of conquest from their alliance.

Ambassador Harvey left Washington after being the guest of the president at the white house since Sunday. He will return next Wednesday for a final conference with the president before sailing for England on Sept. 6.

M'CORMICK IS WED

Paris, Aug. 30.—Allister McCormick, retracting a denial telegraphed Tuesday, made public the news of his betrothal to Miss Joan Stevens of London. The announcement was made at a dinner at the Hotel Paris. McCormick has been quoted as saying that he has had enough of being left at the church by his former fiancee, Mary Landon Baker, and has become engaged to a girl who "knows her mind" and will surely be present at the ceremony.

Women Tell Each Other How They Have Been Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Perryburg, Ohio.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my sides all the time. I can't remember just how long I suffered, but it was for sometime. One day I was traveling with a lady I met on a car, and I told her how I was feeling, and she said she had been just like I was with pains and nervous troubles, and she took the Vegetable Compound, and it cured her. So then I went and got some, and I certainly recommend it for it is good. Whenever I see any woman who is sick I try to get her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ADA FRICK, Route 3, Perryburg, Ohio.

In nearly every neighborhood in every town and city in this country there are women who have been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the treatment of ailments peculiar to their sex, and they take pleasure in passing the good word along to other women. Therefore, if you are troubled in this way, why not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

CONVENTION DEPOT HEARD BY SOCIETIES

A meeting of the Women's and Young Ladies' Missionary Societies of the First United Presbyterian Church was held in the church parlors Wednesday evening, taking the place of the regular prayer meeting. Mrs. A. N. Patterson presided and devotions were in charge of Miss Mary Wheeler. A short business session was held, and Mrs. M. A. Hagler took charge of the program. She announced that the subject for the evening would be: "Facts With Reference to the Year's Work of the Women's General Missionary Society as Presented at a Meeting Recently held in Los Angeles." She introduced Mrs. A. S. Frazer, who answered the questions: "The purpose of the W. G. M. S." the result if all women would become interested," and "how can we make it possible to have the women's missionary magazine in every home?" This was followed by music by Mr. Herman Eavey, Mrs. John M. Davidson and Mrs. W. J. Cherry.

Miss Hazel Flagg, who was a delegate to the convention of the Women's General Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church at Los Angeles this summer, gave an entertaining account of the trip to and from the coast. Mrs. C. H. Ervin, who was also a delegate, reviewed the work of the convention in a very interesting way. A letter was read from Miss Mabel Collins giving her impression of the convention. Miss Collins, who was also a delegate, is remaining in California for a visit at Long Beach.

A large audience composed of men and women was present and enjoyed the interesting program. The program was closed with prayer by Mr. C. H. Ervin. A social house closed the evening.

QUIETLY UNITED IN MARRIAGE TUESDAY

Miss Faye E. Watkins, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins of this city and Mr. Joseph T. Smith, of near Eleazor were quietly united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage at Gordion, Ohio, at 12:30 o'clock Tuesday the Rev. Wm. Shriver officiating.

The double ring ceremony was used, and was witnessed only by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Watkins.

The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of midnight blue with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately for an extended honeymoon auto tour through the west.

Several delightful prenuptial affairs were given for Miss Watkins, and the young couple has a large circle of friends who join in good wishes for their future.

ENTERTAINS CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Ruth Washburn, entertained the young women of the B. U. G. S. Club Tuesday evening at her home on North Detroit street in compliment to Mrs. Robert Shaw, nee Miss Dorothy Clark, a recent bride.

The affair was in the nature of a kitchen shower and the bride was presented with a number of gifts that will be useful in the new home. During the evening a clever guessing contest was enjoyed. The first prize, a recipe book, was won by Miss Eleanor Kiernan and the booby prize, a kitchen utensil, was awarded to Miss Florence Engelman. Both prizes were presented by the winners to the guest of honor. A tempting refreshment course was served late in the evening. Fourteen of the club members were present at the meeting.

RINK PURCHASED FOR NEW CHURCH

Application for a charter has been made with the Secretary of State for the American Christian Church Union No. 1 to be located in Xenia to be sponsored by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and to be the first church of its kind in the United States.

Backers of the movement have purchased the old Casino skating rink, East Third street, from J. A. Sanders, and improvements are now being made to fit the building as a temporary place of worship. It will be used during the winter, it is said, and torn down in the spring to make way for a new church, plans for which are now being prepared by architects.

The church will be interdenominational and the Rev. E. W. Middleton, former pastor of the First Reformed Church here, now chaplain of the Ku Klux Klan, will be the pastor. Several hundred have signed the charter sheet, it is said.

Miss Catherine Foy, of West Second Street, has returned home after a visit of three weeks with relatives at Cedarville, London, Columbus and South Charleston.

Miss Ola Breakall is spending the week in Columbus where she is in attendance at the State Fair.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Furstenberger, of the Friends Church of Xenia, are in attendance at the Indiana Yearly Meeting of Friends held at Richmond, Indiana this week.

The local Friends Church has extended a call for Rev. Furstenberger for the next year, as its pastor.

Miss Esther Thompson, of West Market Street, accompanied by her brother Curtis, returned home from Canton, Wednesday morning having driven through. Miss Thompson has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Swank for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Adair and son, Clinton, will motor to Pittsburgh, Sunday, where Mr. Adair will attend the eighty-third annual Ekklesyia of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity in there next week.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Brown and four children returned Tuesday evening from Louisville, Ky., where Mrs. Brown and the children spent a month with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. K. Loughbridge. The Rev. Mr. Brown was in Louisville part of the time.

Returning from his vacation Tuesday evening, the Rev. R. E. Brown, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will lead the prayer meeting service at that church Wednesday evening.

Mr. J. E. Williams, of St. Louis, who is motoring home after spending the summer at Clifton Springs, New York, arrived here Wednesday and will stop in Xenia for a few days visit with his nieces, the Misses Sarah and Eleanor Williams of the College Court Apartments.

Ben and Glen Shedd have been visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. Shedd at Sabina.

Mrs. Elihu Tobin and family spent the week end in Dayton with Mrs. Tobin's daughter, Mrs. Beverley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kohl have moved into their new home on North King Street, which they recently bought from Mr. and Mrs. George Birch.

Mr. L. S. Hyman and son, Maurice, went to Cincinnati Thursday to attend the Fall Festival being held there.

building has been rented to and occupied for some time by Wahoo Tribe No. 41 Improved Order of Redmen and by Zanetta Council, No. 120, Degree of Pocahontas. These orders will probably continue to meet in the rooms at least temporarily, through arrangements with the Eagles.

Pending the improvements the lodges do not expect to occupy the new rooms until about January 1.

Backers of the movement have purchased the old Casino skating rink, East Third street, from J. A. Sanders, and improvements are now being made to fit the building as a temporary place of worship. It will be used during the winter, it is said, and torn down in the spring to make way for a new church, plans for which are now being prepared by architects.

PINCHOT SPEAKS THE PUBLIC MIND

In his statement to the operators and miners summoned to meet him in Harrisburg, Governor Pinchot, as mediator in the threatened strike, expressed with curious exactness what the Party of the Third Part thinks about the crisis. He spoke the public mind with a sharp directness.

He recognizes the right of the miners to organize and to strike and to fair and decent living conditions. So does the public.

The Governor admits the right of the operators to just returns on managerial ability and to fair profits. The public takes the same view.

Both hostile groups were reminded, as they have been a thousand times, that "public interest demands that this controversy be settled." They were asked to consider the duty they owe to their own industry and to the population they supply with fuel. One of the most significant of the many phrases in the statement was this:

Settlement means that neither side can get everything it would like to have. Few people ever do in the world we live in.

The Governor has made an excellent beginning upon a hard task. His approach to it was sane and sound, breathing the atmosphere of the square deal and a clear-eyed faith in the saving qualities of common counsel.

OLD, BUT YET YOUNG

The veteran politician, Chauncey M. Depew, now in his ninetieth year, still carries in his heart and eye the glow of youth, despite long numbered years. He recently told an audience that America needs more faith and neighborliness.

"I can remember back eighty-four years," he said. During that period I have been cheated and fooled a good many times, but I am still full of optimism and have faith in my country, my church, my party and my friends."

It is a great thing about youth that it is full of faith and hope and neighborliness. But too often experience breeds cynicism and what was youth lags heavily, and the hearts that once were high complain and falter.

Those who permit experience to sour them and to destroy their faith in life's beneficence lose something that gives enchantment to existence. It is as foolish to think the world's all wrong as to think it is all right. All is neither right nor wrong. But there is plenty for any sensible person to put his faith in. And when we find a man of four score years and ten, cheated and fooled a good many times, yet buoyant and trustful almost as youth, we mark his words with reverence and hope that time may deal so kindly with us that experience of many years will not destroy the precious impulse to greet life with a smile.

INVESTIGATING RUSSIA

Senator Borah and other friends of the Soviet Government should be able to find something of interest in the statements of Colonel Haskell and Major Philip Mathews, two of the principal men identified with the American Relief Administration in Russia. Both warn the public that the value of reports brought to the country by senatorial and other investigators is negligible. Major Mathews says:

"When the visitor goes out to view conditions he is furnished the earnest student of Russian conditions wants him. If by any chance the visitor does not take the proffered interpreter, it does not make any difference, because the Government knows at once who is with the visitor and has him up before the Cheka, or secret police, to report everything that occurred. The lowliest Russian knows that if he is with a foreign visitor he will be questioned by the Cheka, and if he fails to tell the truth he will be discovered and punished. Under these conditions no observer can ever obtain a true picture of conditions in Russia."

Bolshevist sympathizers in America may seek to discredit this first hand testimony of one who has spent several active years in close contact with the Soviet Government, but their protestations will be unavailing. The American people are not with Mr. Borah in his desire to recognize the Red Government. There are many reasons why this is true. Major Mathews suggests some of them, as follows:

"The Communist party, with a membership of less than 400,000, is in power to-day in a Russia of 130,000,000 of people. It is ruthless in its efforts to maintain itself. Although the Government has been in control for five years, and there is no indication anywhere of any opposition, yet under the cloak of charges of counter-revolution, members of the intelligentsia are still being exiled by wholesale. Only last spring hundreds of professors from all parts of Russia were exiled and sent to small villages where they could be watched. Merely a breath of suspicion sends these men into exile."

And this alleged sovereignty, which mocks at democracy, which repudiates all religion, which assumes the right to doom to exile or death countless thousands of its citizens, which denies the right of free speech, which reduces the home to the status of a breeding place, is the sovereignty which Senator Borah and other influential Americans would have recognized as worthy of a place among the sisterhood of civilized progressive nations?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The following crochet directions are for a slip-on sweater-blouse, size 38 to 38 made with either two-fold lustre wool, two-fold lustre Island, two-fold lustre floss, or three-fold fingering yarn. But no matter which of these yarns you use, you will need eight balls of dark blue and one ball of olive green. This makes a harmonious over-blouse to wear with a knife-pleated dark blue skirt. A number three bone crocheted hook is used.

Back: With the blue yarn, make a ch. of 95 sts. Row 1: Work 34 S. C. on ch. ch. 2, turn. Row 2: Draw up a loop in first two sts., * yarn over needle draw through all three loops n hook, ch. 1, draw up a loop in next two sts., repeat from * across, ch. 1, turn.

Row Three: Work 1 S. C. in first space to the right of thread from * between the puff st. of preceding row, * 1 S. C. in next space to the left of single thread, 1 S. C. in next space to the right of thread from across having 95 S. C. in all, ch. 2 turn.

Repeat Row Two and Three for body and sleeves of sweater. Work seven rows, ending with one row of S. C., then work six rows of plain afghan st., 7 rows pattern, starting and ending with S. C. row, repeat from * until there are three stripes of afghan st. Now follow the two pattern rows until back measures 18 inches from start, next row add 2 ch. of 20 sts. at each end for sleeves. Work one row on all sts., then add a ch. of 20 sts. again at each end, on next S. C. row there should be 172 S. C. across.

When sleeve measures five and one-half inches in widest part, start at end of one sleeve on S. C. row work 76 S. C. work three rows more on 76 sts., then increase two S. C. toward the neck on each S. C. row, eight times, work an extra puff on each row.

Continue on all sts., until sleeve measures ten inches at cuff end, then decrease sleeve same as increased and on remaining sts. work until "V" of neck measures eight inches. Work second side this far, leaving 22 S. C. in center back for neck. Now work across one front, ch. 2, work across second front. There should now be 102 S. C. in each S. C. row. Finish front to correspond with back.

Horace Ankeny, president of the association which has charge of the annual gatherings is inviting friends to join with the former pupils of the old school in enjoying the day. Several persons from a distance are expected to attend the reunion.

Exploded Grains

Airy, flaky—8 times normal size

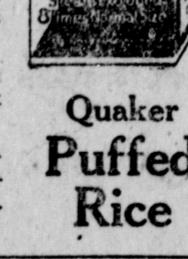

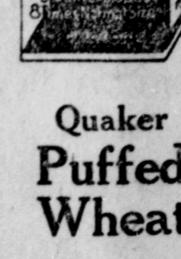

Quaker Puffed Wheat is whole wheat steam exploded. Over 125 million steam explosions are caused in every kernel. Thus the food cells are broken for easy digestion. The grains are puffed to airy globules, flaky, flavorful food confections.

Quaker Puffed Wheat in milk forms the supreme dish for all. It makes whole wheat and milk so exciting that children revel in them. Everyone enjoys them.

Whole wheat supplies 12 minerals which growing children must have. Also their need of bran. Milk is rich in vitamins.

Quaker Puffed Rice—airy, thin and nut-like—is the finest breakfast dainty ever served.

These are matchless foods, fascinating, hygienic. And people enjoy them morning, noon and night. See that they always get them.

Just Folks

THE DEAD FLEDGLING
I have just come in from the yard,
Called there by the children's cri.
And oh, but they take it hard
When a fledgling robin dies!

Tears for the spirit fled
Came into the children's eyes,
Such tears as would grace the bed
Of a monarch when he dies.

Brief was your span of breath,
Poor bird, but could you sing?
Yours was a royal death
To be mourned by the children so.

Today's Talk

THE VAST OPEN SPACES

You who have traveled to the Western coast of America could not have helped but be deeply impressed by the vast open spaces of that remarkable country, the bigness, the crying out of the eternal silence of the hills, the mountains, the miles and miles of stretched-out land, and the hovering of the spirit of hope and opportunity everywhere about.

Time and the genius of man will gradually fill those vast open spaces until even the desert shall bloom and blossom. Like a net, laid over the land and across the mountains, there will be carriers of electricity and avenues of water that will challenge the present imagination of the mind most acute for adventure and commerce.

We are responsible not only for using the abilities that shape themselves naturally and easily to our efforts, but for those which we are capable of increasing; enlarging and making our own when we didn't know that we had them.

Keep climbing out of yourself, above yourself. Fill the open spaces of your mind and heart. Keep counting for more and more all the time.

GUARD WILL WATCH MACHINES AT PARK

Manager Roy Bayliff of the Xenia Bayliffs has received word from local baseball fans that several who left their automobiles at the ball park had the keys taken out of the machines. Bayliff wishes to say that this will not happen again as he will have someone to watch the machines this Sunday on the outside of the Park.

Manager Bayliff wants the following players at his shop on South Deziel street Sunday at 12 o'clock. Shney, Tucker, Kavanaugh, Furnace, Early, Stiles, Free, Herman, Bath, L. Fuller and Leach.

Their will be a meeting and it is important that all players and utility men be there.

The Harshman bunch has taken the measure of some nifty nines including the Dayton Racers, which team they defeated by a 11 to 1 score. They handed the fast Red Wings a 9 to 7 lacing while they defeated the Dayton Blue Ribbons, Fairborn and other fast teams in and around Dayton.

Kavanaugh who is playing center field for the locals held down that same position for the Harshman bunch earlier in the season. The Harshman nine lost to the North Dayton Merchants and the Dayton Marcos by a 5 to 3 score.

The visitors boast of a bunch of clowns in Duffy who catches, Meyers pitcher, Gaylor first base and "Monk" Paul who performs in left field.

The Bayliffs have made up their minds that they are going to defeat the visitors but to do this will not be an easy task. Manager Roy Bayliff will start either Herman who has a world of speed and good breaks on the horseshoe or Curt Free who can also make the old agate do queer things.

The Harshman nine will have three pitchers available. Harold Little whom the locals defeated this season when he pitched for Yellow Springs is now with the Harshman bunch. Lefty Myer and "Peck" Kochly will also be ready to go on the hill. Both of these hurdlers are as good as they come and will make the local batsmen step some in order to bat themselves to a victory. Fans who witness the struggle are bound to see a pitcher's battle. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

BAYLIFFS MAY MEET LITTLE AGAIN WHEN HARSHMAN IS HERE

The Bayliffs and the Harshman's baseball team will hook up in a contest at Washington Park Sunday afternoon that promises to be one of the best treats offered the fans this season.

The Harshman bunch has taken the measure of some nifty nines including the Dayton Racers, which team they defeated by a 11 to 1 score. They handed the fast Red Wings a 9 to 7 lacing while they defeated the Dayton Blue Ribbons, Fairborn and other fast teams in and around Dayton.

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have ever known. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first performed the operation known as "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children, I had to sit for hours and then lay down to get the doctor. I was very frightened about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers don't wait, start today and meanwhile write to Bradford Register Co., Box 46, Atlanta, Ga., for free illustrated book containing information on expectant mothers should have "Mother's Friend" sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

BELGIAN NOTE IS UNSATISFACTORY

London, Aug. 30.—Treasury officials, in a carefully prepared opinion on the Belgian note to Britain, decided that it contains nothing to assist the chances for allied unity. The treasury officials compute that the Belgian proposals mean a total allied demand from Germany of £4,000,000,000 for reparations, which is out of the question in contrast with Bonar Law's and Premier Baldwin's figures totaling £2,314,000,000.

Britain feels more acutely than ever that the real solution of the deadlock is through the creation of an independent commission of experts to ascertain not what the allies demand from Germany, but what Germany is able to pay.

HAS DUAL PERSONALITY

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Bernice Redick, 22, "dual personality" girl, was committed to the state hospital for insane by Probate Judge Postwick. The insanity affidavit charges she has developed acute mania. Her case has attracted widespread attention from the fact that she has two separate personalities, that of a normal girl and that of a 4-year-old child, known to herself as Polly.

SHOT BY WOMAN

Youngstown, O., Aug. 30.—Alger C. Mullar, 25, is in a hospital here with a shotgun wound which doctors say may prove fatal, inflicted by Mrs. Irene Anthonsen, 23, while Mullar and others of an automobile party were said to be taking corn from the Anthonsen farm.

CARPENTER KILLED BY FALL

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Injuries he suffered when he fell from the second-story of the new office building of the Jeffrey Manufacturing company caused the death of Louis A. Baker, 37, a carpenter of Marion.

IF YOU FEEL TIRED OUT YOU OUGHT TO BE FIRED!

When you sleep poorly nights and wake up feeling dull and tired, you become nervous and irritable. It's hard to whet up a keen appetite; your digestion is poor—work becomes a burden and life a drag. You ought to be fired—not from your job, but fired with vim and vigor of youth, the determination to go through hard day's work with a smile and with enough strength and energy left over to enjoy your evenings at home.

BUILD YOURSELF UP! Take a good tonic, as your doctor will advise! Let Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup do for you what this nourishing tonic is doing for countless numbers who become run-down during the hot

A WIFE'S STORY

By Jane Phelps

CHAPTER XIV

It was late afternoon when we returned. Paul was on the porch and greeted Tom with all his old sangfrid, was more effusive even than

I told him of our lovely day, then left them to get dinner. When I called them, I saw at once their attitude toward each other had changed. Tom was very quiet, a serious look in his eyes. Paul had the sulky look I so dreaded.

I talked as lightly as I could, and after a bit Tom roused himself to second me, but Paul remained almost silent, and after dinner pleaded a business engagement in town and left us. Tom helped me clear away, then I put the children to bed, before joining him on the porch.

"What made you so quiet through dinner, Tom?" I asked, anxious to know what had passed between him and Paul.

"I had a talk with Paul, rather I tried to have one. He resented my interest, my questions. I would like to help you, Ruby, help him, because of you, but I can do nothing unless he is honest with me, and that he refuses to be."

"Tell me what you said?" I asked.

"There isn't much to tell. I let him know you had told me his book had not been a success, saying nothing of the details. I asked if he were writing, and he flew into a passion. He surely has it in for publishers," Tom added with a gleam of his old fun in his eyes.

"Then when I asked him what he was doing now he evaded the question; when I pressed him, he grew nasty, said that as long as he supported you in good shape it was none of my business how he did it, or words to that effect. I shall find out before I go back. You may be sure of that."

"Your old detective instincts aroused," I tried to smile. "But, Tom, if you do find out, and it is something he is really ashamed of doing because it is menial, promise me you will say nothing to him. It might dishearten him so he would throw it up. He is terribly proud and sensitive."

"Not too sensitive to let his wife pitch and slave while he makes no effort to economize. I noticed he was dressed as immaculately as ever, smoked the same brand of cigars. I have also noticed your clothes, Ruby. How long is it since you have had a new dress?"

"So long I have forgotten how it seems to wear one," I said lightly. "I used to fret about it, but I don't any more. If I can keep looking decent, keep the children neat and pay the bills I ask nothing more."

"And you have trouble doing even that?"

"Yes, Tom. Sometimes for weeks

I have no money; then Paul will be gloomy, almost sullen. But when he is earning enough to pay our way he is the same old Paul. I think he has no steady position; he can't wanted to talk honestly with Tom. But when he does get work, he is generous with what he has, but how difficult it was to do so and not set him against Paul.

"What an innocent you are, Sis."

Tom said, then talked of other things until bed time. Paul had telephoned he would not be home that night. I imagined he did not care to face Tom again.

"Does he remain out all night very often?" Tom asked when I told him of Paul's message.

"Not as often as when he had his rooms," I replied.

"It is lonely for you, Sis."

"It would be if it were not for the children and the work. I don't have much time to be lonely," I replied a little of the bitterness I felt creeping into my voice.

"Well goodnight, Ruby. You turn in too. I shall go into town right after I breakfast. Take the children and go for a ride. I may not be back in time to take you." I knew he thought that it might be difficult to find out what Paul was doing; that he intended to satisfy himself before he returned.

130,000 Owners Know the Value of this Studebaker

Every unit in the new 1924 Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car has proved its dependability in public use.

There are refinements and improvements, of course, but the underlying principles of design and construction which have made enthusiasts of 130,000 purchasers of this model in three years' time, are not radically changed.

In our opinion, the 1924 Light-Six stands out as the greatest value and closest approach to mechanical perfection in moderate priced cars yet produced.

It is practically free from vibration. Studebaker accomplishes this largely by machining the crankshaft and connecting rods on all surfaces. This requires 61 precision operations. It is an exclusive Studebaker practice on cars at this price, and is found only on a few other cars—and they're replaced above.

Absence of vibration prolongs car life.

New all-steel body of styling beauty. One-piece, safety-gated windshield with attractive cowls lights out in base. Quick-action cowls ventilator. Door curtains, bound on three sides by steel rods, open with doors. Removable upholstering in ten pieces.

COAL STRIKE HINGES ON ACTION OF MINE WORKERS AND OWNERS

Both Sides Considering Governor Pinchot's Proposals
Which Are Said to Be Favorable to Mine Unions
—Operators' Action Uncertain.

Harrisburg, Pa., August 30.—Hopes for settlement of the anthracite coal strike, now scheduled for September 1, was dim today.

Predictions that the program of settlement outlined by Governor Gifford Pinchot, late yesterday would be rejected were voiced by those closest to both operators and miners.

The operators, it was learned from authoritative sources today, take the following stand on the governor's proposals:

THE WAGE QUESTION.—A ten per cent increase is beyond reason. Such an increase suggested by the governor will only tend to add to the unrest in the coal fields if not granted, a wage increase cannot be paid without a boost in prices to the coal burning public.

THE SEMI-CHECK-OFF.—The operators have no objection to the governor's plan, other than his statement that "full recognition should be given the union." A leading operator was authority for the statement his morning that "full recognition" would not be granted.

THE EIGHT HOUR DAY.—The operators agree to this, with the minor exception of saying barn men, mule handlers and some of the maintenance laborers prefer the 12 hour day and should be allowed to retain it.

Today the miners, with their full scale committee of forty members met at the Penn-Harris hotel here, discussing the four proposals made by Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, serving to avert the scheduled anthracite coal strike.

The operators in turn, had gone to Philadelphia, where they were to meet today and pass upon the proposals submitted.

That the proposals favored the miners was the opinion at the State House here today, where Governor Pinchot awaited the joint meeting of

CUBAN REGIME IS THREATENED BY OVERT MOVE

Action of Veterans Assuming a Serious
Aspect

Washington, Aug. 30.—The state department is without advices that a censorship had been established on Cuban-American cable lines, as reported in dispatches from Havana.

Unofficial reports that this and other precautionary measures are being taken by the Zayas government to head of a sedition movement were not credited either by officials of the department or by Cuban legation attachés.

The American embassy at Havana cabled to the state department a translation of an article published in Havana quoting Mr. Crowder to the effect that the United States will support the existing Cuban government in event of revolution. The Crowder statement, the Havana article said, was made following a lengthy conference between Undersecretary of State Phillips, Dr. Arturo Padro, the Cuban charge d'affaires, and Crowder himself. A written assurance that no such implied threat of intervention had been made by Ambassador Crowder was handed to Dr. Padro by Undersecretary Phillips when the Cuban diplomat called at the state department.

The movement of disaffected veterans, which apparently has assumed an aspect threatening the stability of the present Cuban government, is headed by General Carlos Garcia Velez, Cuban minister to Great Britain, and son of the General Garcia of revolutionary fame, who is in Cuba at present.

These veterans, according to the official best posted on Cuban affairs in Washington, are demanding three things from President Zayas: First, the total abolition of the lottery; second, the defeat of the Tarafa bill; and third, provisions for veterans' pensions and the care of orphans to be made in the Cuban budget.

General Garcia Velez and his supporters insist upon the doing away with the lottery, alleging that the Cuban people pay in approximately $9,500,000 each year for lottery tickets, of which the government receives but $4,500,000.

PRINCESS ANASTASIA DEAD

London, Aug. 30.—Following an illness of several weeks, the seriousness of which only became known to the public in the last two or three days, Princess Anastasia, wife of Prince Christopher of Greece and formerly Mrs. William B. Leeds, widow of the American oilman king, died peacefully at 12 minutes before midnight last night.

CHARGES BROUGHT SEEKING REMOVAL OF JOHN McNAMARA

Columbus, August 30.—Accusation against McNamara, Columbus, as assistant state welfare director, was guilty of misconduct and cruelty is included among the 17 specific complaints transmitted today by Attorney General Crabb to Governor Donahue. The attorney general asked the governor to conduct an early hearing relative to the complaints which were filed with Attorney General Crabb by various persons.

If the charges are proven the attorney general recommended that McNamara be dismissed.

"Many of the charges against McNamara are supported by affidavits," said Attorney General Crabb. "If any of them are true, Mr. McNamara is wholly unfit to fill the important position he now holds."

"I deny absolutely every charge made by the attorney general and I certainly shall request Governor Donahue to conduct a full and impartial hearing just as soon as the health of Mrs. McNamara will permit her to attend in person and answer to the charges," said Assistant Director McNamara today.

PRINCESS SUCCUMBS WHILE SHERIFF WAITS TO SEIZE TREASURES

New York, Aug. 30.—Princess Lwoff-Parlaghy, painter of portraits of kings, died without knowing that a deputy sheriff stood guard outside her door, ready to seize her priceless art collection to appease the demand of her creditors. Diabetes had been eating at her delicate body for months. Princess Parlaghy had been in a state of coma for several days. When she regained consciousness she called her nurse and asked her to bring her jewel casket and place around her neck the crown brooch of diamonds and rubies given her by Count Bismarck. With the Iron Chancellor's gift clutched in her thin fingers, and in a house filled with the portraits of great men and art treasures and gifts from all parts of the world, the princess died. Born in Hungary, she was a protege of the ex-kaiser, and painted Wilhelm and many of the crowned heads of Europe and famous Americans, including President Roosevelt.

SNAP SHOTS

Six were drowned when an automobile in which they were riding plunged through an open drawbridge over the Waccamaw river in Henry county, S. C. Those who perished were Mr. and Mrs. Sutton Culver, their three children and Mrs. Marvin Conner.

Five gunmen held up Leon Krell,

were killed and two others seriously injured when their motor car crashed at Detroit, and relieved him of between $50,000 and $6,000, according to the police.

Three attorneys of Flint, Mich.

were killed and two others seriously injured when their motor car crashed into an interurban car near Mt. Morris, Mich. The dead: Judge Marshall M. Fribis, 42; Clark M. Johnson, 40, and Clay M. Wilber, 37.

Dr. F. G. Bunting, discoverer of the tubercular treatment for diabetes, has been insured at Toronto for $1,000,000.

HARPER'S REQUEST DENIED

Columbus, Aug. 30.—The board of control has declined to grant the request of John E. Harper, welfare director, for an appropriation to be used in the purchase of additional live stock for institutional farms. The welfare department requested $18,000 for this purpose, a large part of the amount being needed for the purchase of cows for the Grafton farm, it was stated. Practically the entire herd at that place was obliterated when tubercular cows were found in the flock.

INFANT STRANGLED IN CRIB

Carey, O., Aug. 30.—A pacifier had amused Marlin Creston, 11 months old twin son of Virgil Bell, for many months proved fatal to the child. Placed in his crib beside his twin brother, Marlin attempted to crawl from his crib. In doing so, the string of the pacifier became hooked on the top of the crib. The child fell back into the bed, tightening the string of the pacifier about his neck, strangling him.

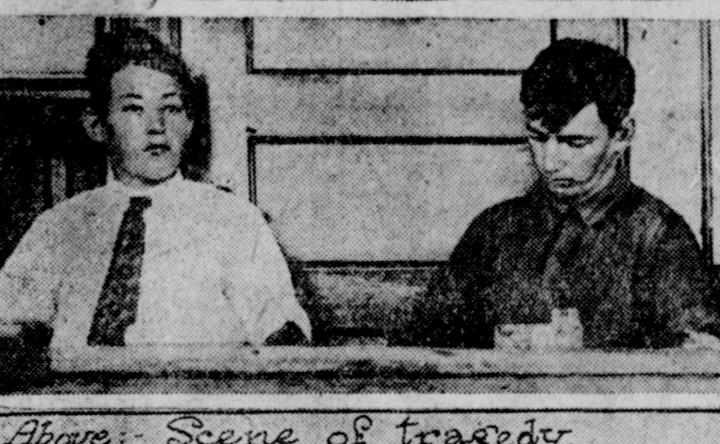

STUDENT BUYS NEWSPAPER

Jackson, O., Aug. 30.—Harold K. Schellenger of this city purchased the controlling interest in the Standard Journal company, publishers of the Standard Journal, Jackson county's oldest newspaper, from Dan W. Williams, Republican member of the state board of clemency. Schellenger is a student in the college of journalism at Ohio State University and will graduate next year.

DOLLINGS DIRECTORS SUED

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Receivers for the R. L. Dollings company filed suit in common please court against the board of directors of the Dollings company, to recover for creditors and stockholders of the company $490,000, which they alleged was paid illegally as dividends on common stock from October, 1919, to April, 1923.

TWO BOYS BURNED TO DEATH

Below: Richard Foreman and Caleb Hubbard.

While crossing a field near Spring Lake, N. J., Richard Foreman, 17; Caleb Hubbard, 18; Willie Hubbard, 14, Caleb's brother, and Charles Spindler, 11, began playing "Indians." Richard Foreman and Caleb tied the other boys to trees and set fire to a little excisor around them, not realizing that the ground was oil soaked from a neighboring gas works. Before they could beat out the flames the two boys were burned to death.

DONAHUE MAY REMOVE POOR FROM OFFICE IN UTILITIES COMMISSION

Columbus, August 30.—Governor Donahue may remove from office Geo. T. Poor, Cincinnati, Republican member of the State Utilities Commission, if he owns stock in a utility controlled by the commission, according to an opinion rendered at the governor's request by Attorney General Crabb. The governor is considering his action today.

The governor, several weeks ago, stated Mr. Poor owned stock in the Cities Service Company, which the governor said, controlled a number of utilities under the jurisdiction of the state commission. He asked the attorney general for an opinion whether such stock ownership constituted grounds for removal of Mr. Poor.

While "mere ownership does not constitute of itself inefficiency malfeasance or nonfeasance," the ground on which the charges may be filed, does not mean the decisions of the commissioner have been influenced, "nevertheless the opinion holds that ownership by a commissioner of stock of a corporation controlled by the utilities commission is illegal and constitutes grounds for removal."

Athens, August 30.—At a meeting of the Greek ministers today, it was decided to agree to only part of the demands made by Premier Mussolini.

ITALIAN FLEET READY FOR IMMEDIATE MOVE AGAINST THE GREEKS

Ultimatum Follows Killing of Italian Head of Allied Commission—League of Nations May Be Involved to Avert Clash.

With formal peace in the Near East only a few weeks old and the nations of Europe still turbulent and restive from the great war, the grim shadow of a new conflict appeared upon the horizon today.

Italy sent an ultimatum to Greece demanding reparations and an apology for the killing of General Tellini, the Italian head of the allied commission for the delimitation of the Albanian frontier and four of Tellini's colleagues.

As soon as the ultimatum was sent, reports of naval and troop movements began to pour out of Italy and Premier Mussolini was said to be making war plans with military and naval officials.

Advices from London said that the allied statesmen were opposed to another war and that the League of Nations might be invoked to maintain the peace.

London, August 30.—The Italian fleet at Taranto has been ordered to clear for action and a movement against Greece may take place at any moment, said a Milan dispatch to the Evening News.

Paris, August 30.—Secret orders have been issued concentrating the Italian fleet at Taranto for a possible demonstration against Greece, said a dispatch from Turin today. Troop concentrations are reported from the interior of Italy.

The Italian government is awaiting Greece's reply to the 24-hour ultimatum demanding and apology and reparations for the killing of General Tellini, head of the interallied commission for delimitation of the Albanian frontier, and the four other members of his party near Janina.

Public feeling has risen to fever heat.

Italian press censorship forbids the publication of movements of troops and warships.

It is understood that Italy is preparing to send division of soldiers to Piraeus whether or not Greece apologizes.

Premier Mussolini conferred with military officials at great length. The Italians are certain that the attack was directed against Italy and not against the boundary commission as a body.

The effort to get rid of Adams was initiated by world court advocates, who desired his removal because of his stand against the court proposal.

Chairman Adams said he regarded any other position as coming close to breaking faith with the people, who gave the Republican ticket a majority of 7,000,000 in 1920 on the league issue.

Before Mr. Coolidge assumed the presidency and titular leadership of the party, the fight on Adams had reached the point where his opponents were ready to make an open move to supplant him at the December meeting of the national committee. They had their man picked out.

President Coolidge informed those heading the movement that he would not permit the fight to go on. In line with his policy of retaining the Harding aides in the administration, he also purposed to keep the party machinery intact.

It is pretty well established, too, that Mr. Adams' friends on the committee were prepared for the fray. The element opposed to foreign entanglements is in control of the committee, and it would have taken unusual executive pressure to shake these members from their support of the chairman.

Chairman Adams' term runs until after the next national convention elects a new national committee. This will be next summer. Whether he will stand for re-election or can get another term if he wants it depends entirely upon the personnel of the new committee.

Mr. Adams is concluding his vacation in Michigan this week. Monday he will go to New York to confer with Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the national committee, on his return from Europe. From New York Chairman Adams will come to Washington to get things in shape for actively launching the pre-convention campaign about Oct. 1.

BUESCHER ACCEPTS

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Failure of friends of Captain R. U. Hastings to have him either restored to good standing by the state civil service commission or granted a rehearing, resulted in the appointment of A. M. Buescher of Columbus, world war veteran, as superintendent of the Boys' Industrial school, Lancaster. Major Buescher refused to accept the position as long as there was a chance for Captain Hastings, under whom he served as assistant superintendent for many years.

DE VALERA WINNER IN IRISH ELECTION

Dublin, Aug. 30.—A startling change in the complexion of returns from Monday's polling has put an entirely different face on the result of the election. The Irish election which, judged by first returns, indicated a big sweep for the Free State government, seems to have entirely changed. While the Free Staters will lead all other parties, they may have to rely upon successful business, farmer and independent candidates for a working majority. The government fared badly in County Clare, where De Valera headed the poll with a big majority which carried in two other Republicans on the ticket.

SAYS OPEN BREAK WOULD PROVE COSTLY

Washington, Aug. 30.—Ambassador Harvey has told President Coolidge he does not expect an open break between Great Britain and France over the French Ruhr policy. "They are both in the same box, and while neither is getting much sleep, he can't afford to move," the ambassador is quoted as saying. A break would be disastrous to both countries, is the way the ambassador is said to view the situation. It would mean the loss of all the fruits of conquest from their alliance.

Ambassador Harvey left Washington after being the guest of the president at the white house since Sunday. He will return next Wednesday for a final conference with the president before sailing for England on Sept. 8.

M'CORMICK IS WED

Paris, Aug. 30.—Allister McCormick, retracting a denial telegraphed Tuesday, made public the news of his betrothal to Miss Joan Stevens of London. The announcement was made at a dinner at the Hotel Paris. McCormick has been quoted as saying that he has had enough of being left at the church by his former fiancee, Mary Landon Baker, and has become engaged to a girl who "knows her mind," and will surely be present at the ceremony.

INFANT STRANGLED IN CRIB

Carey, O., Aug. 30.—A pacifier that had amused Marlin Creston, 11 months old twin son of Virgil Bell, for many months proved fatal to the child. Placed in his crib beside his twin brother, Marlin attempted to crawl from his crib. In doing so, the string of the pacifier became hooked on the top of the crib. The child fell back into the bed, tightening the string of the pacifier about his neck, strangling him.

Women Tell Each Other How They Have Been Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Perryburg, Ohio.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my sides all the time. I can't remember just how long I suffered, but it was for some time. One day I was talking with a lady I met on a car, and I told her how I was feeling and she said she had been just like I was with pains and nervous troubles, and she took the Vegetable Compound, and it cured her. So then I went and got some, and I certainly recommend it for it is good. Whenever I see any woman who is sick I try to get her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ADA FEICE, Route 3, Perryburg, Ohio.

In nearly every neighborhood in every town and city in this country there are women who have been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the treatment of ailments peculiar to their sex, and they take pleasure in passing the good word along to other women. Therefore, if you are troubled in this way, why not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

CONVENTION DEPOT BOARD BY SOCIETIES

A meeting of the Women's and Young Ladies' Missionary Societies of the First United Presbyterian Church was held in the church parlors Wednesday evening, taking the place of the regular prayer meeting. Mrs. A. L. Patterson presided and devotionals were in charge of Miss Mary Wheeler. A short business session was held, and Mrs. M. A. Hagler took charge of the program. She announced that the subject for the evening would be: "Facts With Reference to the Year's Work of the Women's General Missionary Society as Presented at a Meeting Recently held in Los Angeles." She introduced Mrs. A. S. Frazer, who answered the questions: "The purpose of the W. G. M. S." the result if all women would become interested, and "how can we make it possible to have the women's missionary magazine in every home?" This was followed by music by Mr. Herman Eavey, Mrs. John M. Davidson and Mrs. W. J. Cherry.

Miss Hazel Flagg, who was a delegate to the convention of the Women's General Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church at Los Angeles this summer, gave an entertaining account of the trip to and from the coast. Mrs. C. H. Ervin, who was also a delegate, reviewed the work of the convention in a very interesting way. A letter was read from Miss Mabel Collins giving her impression of the convention. Miss Collins, who was also a delegate, is remaining in California for a visit at Long Beach.

QUIETLY UNITED IN MARRIAGE TUESDAY

Miss Faye E. Watkins, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins of this city and Mr. Joseph T. Smith of near Eleazor were quietly united in marriage at the M. E. parsonage at Gordon, Ohio, at 12:30 o'clock Tuesday the Rev. Wm. Shriver officiating.

The double ring ceremony was used, and was witnessed only by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Watkins.

The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of midnight blue with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately for an extended honeymoon auto tour through the west.

Several delightful prenuptial affairs were given for Miss Watkins, and the young couple has a large circle of friends who join in good wishes for their future.

ENTERTAINS CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Ruth Washburn, entertained the young women of the B. U. G. S. Club Tuesday evening at her home on North Detroit street in compliment to Mrs. Robert Shaw, nee Miss Dorothy Clark, a recent bride.

The affair was in the nature of a kitchen shower and the bride was presented with a number of gifts that will be useful in the new home. During the evening a clever guessing contest was enjoyed. The first prize, a recipe book, was won by Miss Eleanor Kiernan and the booby prize, a kitchen utensil, was awarded to Miss Florence Engilman. Both prizes were presented by the winners to the guest of honor. A tempting refreshment course was served late in the evening. Fourteen of the club members were present at the meeting.

Twenty merry children frolicked at the Adair bungalow on the Little Miami river Tuesday helping Richard Adair little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adair celebrate his sixth birthday. The little folks received invitations to the party bearing a picture of Richard wearing overalls, and all were ready for a jolly time out of doors with their young host. All sorts of games were played but the boys and girls enjoyed most a boat ride on the river.

building has been rented to and occupied for some time by Wahoe Tribe No. 41 Improved Order of Redmen and by Zanetta Council, No. 120, Degree 3 of Pocahontas. These orders will probably continue to meet in the rooms at least temporarily, through arrangements with the Eagles.

Pending the improvements the lodge does not expect to occupy the new rooms until about January 1.

Application for a charter has been made with the Secretary of State for the American Christian Church Union No. 1 to be located in Xenia to be sponsored by the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan and to be the first church of its kind in the United States.

Backers of the movement have purchased the old Casino skating rink, East Third street, from J. A. Sanders, and improvements are now being made to fit the building as a temporary place of worship. It will be used during the winter, it is said, and torn down in the spring to make way for a new church, plans for which are now being prepared by architects.

The church will be interdenominational and the Rev. E. W. Middleton, former pastor of the First Reformed Church here, now chaplain of the Ku Klux Klan, will be the pastor. Several hundred have signed the charter sheet, it is said.

The sale was completed Wednesday through the agency of T. C. Long, real estate dealer, and the consideration was said to be $35,000. Possession was given immediately except in the case of tenants with long term leases on the property.

The building figuring in the deal is a three story brick structure built by George Little and of practically modern construction. It was later owned by R. S. Kingsbury and sold by him to W. C. Sutton, several years ago. The building has housed the exchange of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company on the second floor for years and the exchange will continue to occupy the building under the terms of a lease with four or five years yet to run.

The ground floor of the building is occupied by two store rooms facing on Main Street and occupied by the Sutton music store and the Reliable Clothing store, and an automobile sales room fronting on Whiteman street occupied by Dickman and Johnson.

The exchange only occupies a part of the second floor, other available space being used as a store room by W. C. Sutton. The third floor of the

PINCHOT SPEAKS THE PUBLIC MIND

In his statement to the operators and miners summoned to meet him in Harrisburg, Governor Pinchot, as mediator in the threatened strike, expressed with curious exactness what the Party of the Third Part thinks about the crisis. He spoke the public mind with a sharp directness.

He recognizes the right of the miners to organize and to strike and to fair and decent living conditions. So does the public.

The Governor admits the right of the operators to just returns on managerial ability and to fair profits. The public takes the same view.

Both hostile groups were reminded, as they have been a thousand times, that "public interest demands that this controversy be settled". They were asked to consider the duty they owe to their own industry and to the population they supply with fuel. One of the most significant of the many phrases in the statement was this:

Settlement means that neither side can get everything it would like to have. Few people ever do in the world we live in.

The Governor has made an excellent beginning upon a hard task. His approach to it was sane and sound, breathing the atmosphere of the square deal and a clear-eyed faith in the saving qualities of common counsel.

OLD, BUT YET YOUNG

The veteran politician, Chauncey M. Depew, now in his ninetieth year, still carries in his heart and eye the glow of youth, despite long numbered years. He recently told an audience that America needs more faith and neighborliness.

"I can remember back eighty-four years," he said. During that period I have been cheated and fooled a good many times, but I am still full of optimism and have faith in my country, my church, my party and my friends."

It is a great thing about youth that it is full of faith and hope and neighborliness. But too often experience breeds cynicism and what was youth lags heavily, and the hearts that once were high complain and falter.

Those who permit experience to sour them and to destroy their faith in life's beneficence lose something that gives enchantment to existence. It is as foolish to think the world's all wrong as to think it is all right. All is neither right nor wrong. But there is plenty for any sensible person to put his faith in. And when we find a man of four score years and ten, cheated and fooled a good many times, yet buoyant and trustful almost as youth, we mark his words with reverence and hope that time may deal so kindly with us that experience of many years will not destroy the precious impulse to greet life with a smile.

INVESTIGATING RUSSIA

Senator Borah and other friends of the Soviet Government should be able to find something of interest in the statements of Colonel Haskell and Major Philip Mathews, two of the principal men identified with the American Relief Administration in Russia. Both warn the public that the value of reports brought to the country by senatorial and other investigators is negligible. Major Mathews says:

"When the visitor goes out to view conditions he is furnished with the earnest student of Russian conditions wants him. If by any chance the visitor does not take the proffered interpreter, it does not make any difference, because the Government knows at once who is with the visitor and has him up before the Cheka, or secret police, to report everything that occurred. The lowliest Russian knows that if he is with a foreign visitor he will be questioned by the Cheka, and if he fails to tell the truth he will be discovered and punished. Under these conditions no observer can ever obtain a true picture of conditions in Russia."

Bolshevik sympathizers in America may seek to discredit this first hand testimony of one who has spent several active years in close contact with the Soviet Government, but their protestations will be unavailing. The American people are not with Mr. Borah in his desire to recognize the Red Government. There are many reasons why this is true. Major Mathews suggests some of them, as follows:

"The Communist party, with a membership of less than 400,000, is in power to-day in a Russia of 130,000,000 of people. It is ruthless in its efforts to maintain itself. Although the Government has been in control for five years, and there is no indication anywhere of any opposition, yet under the cloak of charges of counter-revolution, members of the intelligentsia are still being exiled by wholesale. Only last spring hundreds of professors from all parts of Russia were exiled and sent to small villages where they could be watched. Merely a breath of suspicion sends these men into exile."

And this alleged sovereignty, which mocks at democracy, which repudiates all religion, which assumes the right to doom to exile or death countless thousands of its citizens, which denies the right of free speech, which reduces the home to the status of a breeding place, is the sovereignty which Senator Borah and other influential Americans would have recognized as worthy of a place among the sisterhood of civilized progressive nations?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The following crochet directions are for a slip-on sweater-blouse, size 36 to 38 made with either two-fold lustre wool, two-fold lustre ice-land, two-fold lustre floss, or three-fold fingering yarn. But no matter which of these yarns you use, you will need eight balls of dark blue and one ball of olive green. This makes a harmonious over-blouse to wear with a knife-pleated dark blue skirt. A number three bone crochet hook is used.

Back: With the blue yarn, make a ch. of 95 sts. Row 1: Work 34 S C on ch., ch. 2, turn. Row 2: Draw up a loop in first two sts., * yarn over needle draw through all three loops on hook, ch. 1, draw up a loop in next two sts., repeat from * across, ch. 1, turn.

Row Three: Work 1 S. C. in first space to the right of thread from between the puff st. of preceding row. * 1 S. C. in next space to the left of single thread, 1 S. C. in next space to the right of thread from across having 95 S. C. in all, ch. 2 turn.

Repeat Row Two and Three for body and sleeves of sweater. Work seven rows, ending with one row of S. C., then work six rows of plain afghan st. 7, rows pattern, starting and ending with S. C. row, repeat from * until there are three stripes of afghan st. Now follow the two pattern rows until back measures 17 inches from start, next row add a ch. of 20 sts. at each end for sleeves. Work one row on all sts. then add a ch. of 20 sts. again at each end, on next S. C. row there should be 174 S. C. across.

When sleeve measures five and one-half inches in widest part, start at end of one sleeve on S. C. row work 76 S. C. work three rows more on 76 sts., then increase two S. C. toward the neck on each S. C. row, eight times, work an extra puff on these two S. C. on each row.

Continue on all sts., until sleeve measures ten inches at cuff end, then decrease sleeve same as increased and on remaining sts. work until "V" of neck measures eight inches. Work second side this way, leaving 22 S. C. in center back for neck. Now work across one front ch. 2, work across second front. There should now be 102 S. C. in each S. C. row. Finish front to correspond with back.

Tired aching feet? MENTHOLATUM soothes, cools and relieves.

The olive green yarn is used for buttonholing at neck, edge of sleeve instead of having cuffs and lower edge of blouse.

Horace Ankeney, president of the association which has charge of the annual gatherings is inviting friends to join with the former pupils of the old school in enjoying the day. Several persons from a distance are expected to attend the reunion.

Exploded Grains

Airy, flaky—8 times normal size

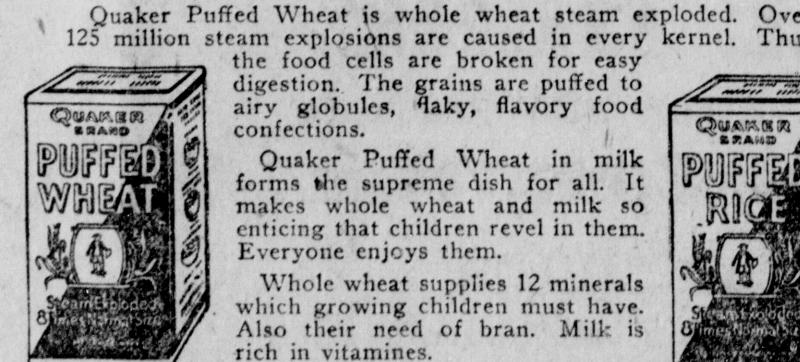

Quaker Puffed Wheat is whole wheat steam exploded. Over 125 million steam explosions are caused in every kernel. Thus the food cells are broken for easy digestion. The grains are puffed to airy globules, flaky, flavorful food confections.

Quaker Puffed Wheat in milk forms the supreme dish for all. It makes whole wheat and milk so enticing that children revel in them. Everyone enjoys them.

Whole wheat supplies 12 minerals which growing children must have. Also their need of bran. Milk is rich in vitamins.

Quaker Puffed Rice—airy, thin and nut-like—is the finest breakfast dainty ever served.

These are matchless foods, fascinating, hygienic. And people welcome them morning, noon and night. See that they always get them.

THE DEAD FLEDGLING
I have just come in from the yard.
Called them by the children's cry.
And oh, but they take it hard
When a fledgling robin dies!

for breath:
Came a slight little tremor—and
The children had looked on death.
Tears for the spirit fled
Came into the children's eyes,
Such tears as would grace the bed
Of a monarch when he dies.

Brief was your span of breath,
Poor bird, but could you know
Yours was a royal death
To be mourned by the children so.

Today's Talk

THE VAST OPEN SPACES

You who have traveled to the Western coast of America could not have helped but be deeply impressed by the vast open spaces of that remarkable country, the bigness, the crying out of the eternal silence of the hills, the mountains, the miles and miles of stretched-out land, and the hovering of the spirit of hope and opportunity everywhere about.

Time and the genius of man will gradually fill those vast open spaces until even the desert shall bloom and blossom. Like a net laid over the land and across the mountains, there will be carriers of electricity and avenues of water that will challenge the present imagination of the mind most acute for adventure and achievement.

These minds of ours are also vast in their open spaces. So remarkable, so alert and so fertile they are, and yet so small a part is cultivated in our short lives.

I have been fascinated by the rise of skyscraping buildings that replace old and decaying smaller structures. I have seen the great open space above these old buildings filled with the towering stories that later seem with activity and commerce.

We are responsible not only for using the abilities that shape themselves naturally and easily to our efforts, but for those which we are capable of increasing, enlarging and making our own when we didn't know that we had them. Keep climbing out of yourself, above your open spaces. So remarkable, so alert and so fertile they are, and yet so small a part is cultivated in our short lives.

"FOLLOW ME" COMES HERE RECOMMENDED

Theater goers believe the Standard Amusement Company struck twelve in its selection of a performance to pry off the lid of the local theatrical season by booking "Follow Me" the colored musical show to open at City Hall Theater Thursday evening.

These theater goers are made up of the musical comedy fans and lovers of good colored comedy who say and heard "Follow Me", during one of its three-day engagements at the Victory Theater, Dayton last winter. The piece was booked for Xenia at the same time but cancelled with a promise of making Xenia this season. The troupe arrived in Xenia Wednesday evening from Fort Wayne.

CUTICURA HEALS SCALY ECZEMA

On Brother's Face and Hands. Itched and Burned.

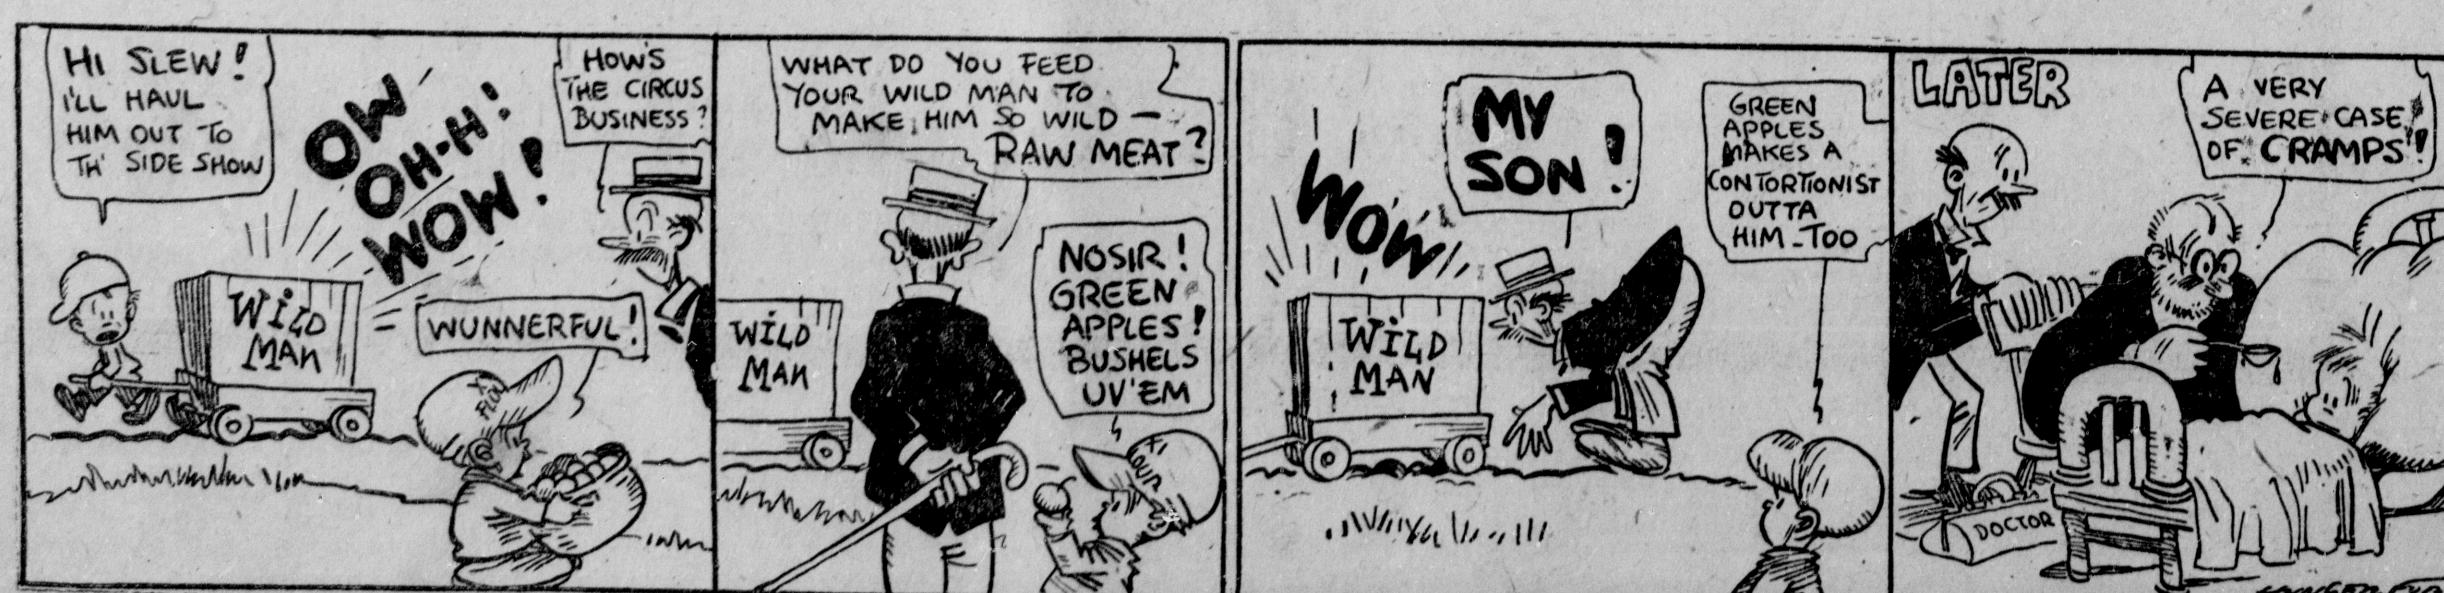

"My brother was bothered with eczema all his life. It broke out in a dry, scaly form on his face. Later it spread to his hands. It itched and burned causing him to scratch the affected parts, and the scratching caused eruptions. His hands pained when he put them in water."

"He began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment he was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Freda Lyons, Thurman, Iowa.

Cuticura Soap daily with Cuticura Ointment occasionally, prevents pimples or other eruptions. They are pleasing to use, as is also Cuticura Talcum for perfuming the skin.

Sample Free by Mail. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden 48, Mass. Sold everywhere. Soap 2c. Ointment 2c ad 10c. Talcum 2c. Cuticura Soap shaves without mug.

BELGIAN NOTE IS UNSATISFACTORY

London, Aug. 30.—Treasury officials, in a carefully prepared opinion on the Belgian note to Britain, decided that it contains nothing to assist the chances for allied unity. The treasury officials compute that the Belgian proposals mean a total allied demand from Germany of £4,000,000,000 for reparations, which is out of the question in contrast with Bonar Law's and Premier Baldwin's figures totaling £2,314,000,000.

Britain feels more acutely than ever that the real solution of the deadlock is through the creation of an independent commission of experts to ascertain not what the allies demand from Germany, but what Germany is able to pay.

HAS DUAL PERSONALITY

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Bernice Redick, 22, "dual personality" girl, was committed to the state hospital for insane by Probate Judge Bostwick. The insanity affidavit charges she has developed acute mania. Her case has attracted widespread attention from the fact that she has two separate personalities, that of a normal girl and that of a 4-year-old child, known to herself as Polly.

SHOT BY WOMAN

Youngstown, O., Aug. 30.—Alger C. Mullar, 25, is in a hospital here with a shotgun wound which doctors say may prove fatal, inflicted by Mrs. Irene Anthoson, 23, while Mullar and others of an automobile party were said to be taking corn from the Anthoson farm.

CARPENTER KILLED BY FALL

Columbus, Aug. 30.—Injuries he suffered when he fell from the second-story of the new office building of the Jeffrey Manufacturing company caused the death of Louis A. Baker, 37, a carpenter of Marion.

IF YOU FEEL TIRED OUT YOU OUGHT TO BE FIRED!

When you sleep poorly nights and wake up feeling dull and tired, you become nervous and irritable. It's hard to whet up a keen appetite; your digestion is poor—work becomes a burden and life a drag. You ought to be fired—not from your job, but fired with vim and vigor of youth, the determination to go through a hard day's work with a smile and with enough strength and energy left over to enjoy your evenings at home.

BUILD YOURSELF UP! Take a good tonic, as your doctor will advise! Let Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup do for you what this nourishing tonic is doing for countless numbers who become run-down during the hot summer months. Let it help you increase appetite, improve digestion, wake up the torpid liver, gently correct constipation, cleanse, nourish and strengthen your system, soothe and tone the overtaxed nerves and send healthier blood coursing through the veins.

TRY THIS TONIGHT! Take just one delicious tablespoonful after the next few meals. Quickly notice the big difference in the way you eat, sleep and feel. The cost is only a trifle and if you are not completely satisfied your money will be returned. The Thacher agency in Xenta by Sayre & Hemphill and Sohn's drug store and in ames town by G. O. Carpenter.
